

Middle School Grade Supply List

This list will cover ALL of the classes in middle school and all of the supplies that are needed.

(2) spiral-bound notebooks (1.5 in. or 2 in.) to be used as the Interactive & Homework Notebooks (more notebooks may be required later in the year once these fill up) - college rule or one-centimeter grid paper [preferable]

(1) loose-leaf notebook paper section containing at least 200 sheets of college ruled or 1 cm. and 200 sheets of graph paper.

(1) pencil pouch (3-hole punched to go into the 3-ring binder).

(1) 50 count package of 5" x 8" index cards or smaller (for tests)

(3) mechanical pencils with extra graphite and large eraser or (1) box of pencils with erasers (a large eraser and self-contained pencil sharpener is also encouraged)

(2) erasable black, blue, or red pens

(1) highlighter

(1) ruler (measures in both inches and centimeters)

(1) simple calculator - This is just to be used to do large calculations. It should have: 1. The basic numbers and four main arithmetic functions, 2. Square root sign (be able to calculate square root), and 3. The + / - sign (to calculate integers). No graphing calculators, please. They will be NOT be allowed to be used in the classroom.

(1) pair of scissors

(1) set of either coloring pencils/crayons/markers

(1) protractor (to measure angles 7th and 8th grade only)

(1) compass (to draw circles of a given radius) (to measure angles 7th and 8th grade only)

(2) sticky notepad (standard size) – multiple colors preferred

(2) Composition Notebook (more notebooks may be required later in the year once these fill up) - college rule or one-centimeter grid paper [preferable]

(1) Folder for handouts

(2) dry erase markers (Roumbos)

(1) whiteboard small (Roumbos)

(1) three-ring binder with two-inch or three-inch rings (This is the general notebook used for all classes that contains loose paper and folders.)

(6) binder dividers with tabs (one for each class)

(2) glue sticks

Optional:

(1) Headphones for ipads.

(2) Ream of copy paper

(1) Stylus for writing on tablet/computer